(b) and (c) Water Supply lines in NDMC area were laid some 40-50 years back and with the passage of time they have got encrustated at several places. Water reservoirs in NDMC area are periodically flushed and cleaned. The NDMC has now set up its own water quality monitoring units to have a double check over the quality of water. Whenever a local complaint about contamination of water is received, it is analysed to be investigated and rectified. On an average such complaints are only 1 or 2 per day as against more than 11 lakhs installed water connections. The complaints are usually from narrow service lines where water mains and sewer lines or| drains are laid very close to each other. The DWS & SD Undertaking has launched a special drive to remove on line booster & raising service pipes passing through drains manhole to avoid chances of contamination. As regards underground reservoirs & over Head Tanks, annual flushing and cleaning is being done every year in winter.
